SCOTT CUNHA

SCOTT CUNHA, known for styling gorgeous hair that is voluminous and effortlessly chic without looking too “done”, has been a featured stylist in both The Los Angeles Times and Allure Magazine, as a talented, fresh face in the industry. His work has been featured in such publications as Russian Vogue, German Vogue, Spanish Vogue, Town & Country, Maxim, Complex and Condè Nast Traveler. Scott has mastered precise short cuts for both men and women and feathery, soft layers for long tresses. His work has won over the likes of celebrities, the runway and Los Angeles’s finest. Most recently he has joined E!’s Style Collective as a beauty expert, and will be featured on their digital and social media platforms Oscars week 2016.

Scott studied at Paul Mitchell The School in Rhode Island, perfecting his craft that would later land him at Andy LeCompte Salon in Los Angeles. Not long after arriving in California, Scott’s enthusiasm and undeniable talent sent him on a world tour with Miley Cyrus. His greatest tool is his brilliantly artistic eye, allowing him to draw inspiration from timeless movies. Scott fuses the elegance of the classic hairstyle with the more contemporary styles found in the work of many photographers and artists, most notably Helmut Newton and Karl Lagerfeld.

His knack for gorgeous and innovative hairstyles has made him a favorite amongst fashion and Hollywood’s elite, having worked with Diane Kruger, Erin Wasson, Sienna Miller, and Emma Roberts. His client list also includes Nicole Richie, Kim, Khloe and Kourtney Kardashian, Kendall and Kylie Jenner, Miley Cyrus, Lucy Hale, Colton Hayes, Alessandra Torresani, Nicole Scherzinger, Jamie Chung, Padma Lakshmi and Jayson Blair. This Los Angeles based hairstylist has made his mark on Hollywood, creating unforgettable looks for The Oscars, Grammys, Golden Globes, SAG Awards, fashion spreads and various other events.
