LAW ROACH

Making his way into the upper echelon of must-see stylists, LAW ROACH lives and breathes fashion. He began his career as a vintage broker. Collecting and curating the world's most sought after vintage pieces rapidly increased his popularity which led Law to New York to open his first boutique, Deliciously Vintage Harlem.

Inspired by the success of Deliciously Vintage Harlem, Law founded Deliciously Vintage Chicago, bringing a renewed energy to the city's fashion scene. Inevitably, the boutique captured the attention of fashion icons such as Kanye West. Looking to extend his influence, Law revels in working with rising artists and collaborating with labels and companies like Atlantic Records, Hollywood Records, Island Def Jam and Disney.

Law's A-list celebrity clients including Celine Dion, Zendaya, Jessie J., Skai Jackson, Ariana Grande, Ruby Rose and Willow Shields continue to stimulate a myriad of trends that appear on blogs and magazines for winning "Who Wore It Better" and "Best Dressed Celebrities." In 2016 he joined the panel of judges for the hit TV show "America's Next Top Model" and was a recipient for the Style Disruptor award from Essence magazine.

Fueled by his love for fashion, Law continues to distinguish himself as a stylist and fashion guru. Whether dressing clients for red carpet events, advertising campaigns, magazine spreads or covershoots for publications such as Marie Claire, Essence and Cosmopolitan, Law remains unparalleled in the fashion industry.

Law currently resides in Los Angeles, California.
